

INDEX OF AUTHORS

A

Arthurton, M. W. (and R. V. Gibson, and G. M. Woodwark): Anomalous pulmonary vein drainage into the coronary sinus. 460.

B

Barnard, P. J.: Thrombo-embolic primary pulmonary arteriosclerosis. 93.
Barritt, D. W.: Simple pulmonary stenosis. 381.
Besterman, E. M. M.: The cardiac output in acute rheumatic carditis. 8.
Brigden, W. (and J. Shillingford): The vectorcardiogram of mitral stenosis. 13.
— (and P. Mounsey): The apical systolic murmur in mitral stenosis. 255.
Brock, R. C.: The mechanical principles in the surgery of aortic and mitral incompetence. 317.
Brown, D. (and E. J. Fischmann): Frontal coronal and sagittal plane vectorcardiography with a two-channel scalar electrocardiograph. 351.

C

Calvert, R. (and E. Smith): Procaine amide therapy in auricular flutter with 1:1 A-V conduction. 331.
Campbell, Maurice (and Geoffrey Reynolds): Electrocardiographic changes during operations for pulmonary stenosis. 57.
— Simple pulmonary stenosis, pulmonary stenosis with a closed ventricular septum. 273.
— (and D. C. Deuchar): The left-sided superior vena cava. 423.

D

Davies, L. G. (and J. F. Goodwin, and B. D. Van Leuven): The nature of pulmonary hypertension in mitral stenosis. 440.
Davison, P. H. (and R. G. Epps): The left auricular electrokymogram in mitral stenosis. 49.
Degenhardt, D. P. (and R. Hodgkinson): Ethavrine in the treatment of angina pectoris. 142.
Dejong, D. (and P. Thomas): The P wave in the electrocardiogram in the diagnosis of heart disease. 241.
Deuchar, D. C. (and Maurice Campbell): The left-sided superior vena cava. 423.
Dixon, Allan St. J.: Juxtaposition of the atrial appendages: Two cases of an unusual congenital cardiac deformity. 153.
Doniach, I. (and B. Morrison, and R. E. Steiner): Lung-changes during hexamethonium therapy for hypertension. 101.

E

Epps, R. G. (and P. H. Davison): The left auricular electrokymogram in mitral stenosis. 49.
Evans, William (and Peter Swann): Lone auricular fibrillation. 189.

F

Fazlullah, S. (and S. B. Hughes): Cardiac failure due to tumour of the left atrium. 325.
Finnegan, T. R. L. (and J. R. Trounce): Depression of the heart by quinidine and its treatment. 341.
Fischmann, E. J. (and D. Brown): Frontal and sagittal plane vectorcardiography with a two-channel scalar electrocardiograph. 351.
Fitzpatrick, M. (and P. Swann): Single coronary artery. 457.
Fowler, P. B. S. (and A. Guz): Blood pressure during exercise and the effect of hexamethonium. 1.

G

Gibson, R. V. (and M. W. Arthurton, and G. M. Woodwark): Anomalous pulmonary vein drainage into the coronary sinus. 460.
Gilmore, H. (and M. Hamilton, H. Kopelman, and L. S. Sommer): The ear oximeter: its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output. 301.
Gitelson, S.: Determination of the venous pressure in the sitting position. 147.

- Goodwin, J. F. (and L. G. Davies, and B. D. Van Leuven): The nature of pulmonary hypertension in mitral stenosis. 440.
 Gorlin, R.: The mechanism of the signs and symptoms of mitral valve disease. 375.
 Gray, Ian R.: Mitral stenosis and hypertension. 165.
 Guz, A. (and P. B. S. Fowler): Blood pressure during exercise and the effect of hexamethonium. 1.

H

- Hamilton, G. (and Idris Jones, and A. G. Stuart): Ruptured interventricular septa with survival for several days. 463.
 Hamilton, M. (and H. Kopelman, H. Gilmore, and L. S. Sommer): The ear oximeter: its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output. 301.
 Heptinstall, R. H.: Renal biopsies in hypertension. 133.
 Hilario, J. (and J. Lind, and C. Wegelius): Rapid biplane angiocardiology in the tetralogy of Fallot. 109.
 Hodgkinson, R. (and D. P. Degenhardt): Ethaverine in the treatment of angina pectoris. 142.
 Howarth, Sheila: Atrial waves on arterial pressure records in normal rhythm, heart block, and auricular flutter. 171.
 Hughes, S. B. (and S. Fazlullah): Cardiac failure due to tumour of the left atrium. 325.

J

- Jacobs, H. D.: Ballistocardiographic observations. 79.
 Jones, Idris (and G. Hamilton, and A. G. Stuart): Ruptured interventricular septa with survival for several days. 463.

K

- Kopelman, H. (and M. Hamilton, H. Gilmore, and L. S. Sommer): The ear oximeter: its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output. 301.
 Konar, N. R. (and A. N. Sen Gupta): Ventricular septal defect at an unusual site. 227.
 Korner, P. (and J. Shillingford): The right atrial pulse in congestive heart failure. 447.

L

- Leatham, A. (and L. Vogelpoel): The early systolic sound in dilatation of the pulmonary artery. 21.
 Lee, G. de (and M. B. Matthews, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer): The effect of the Valsalva manoeuvre on the systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man. 311.
 Lind, J. (and J. Hilario, and C. Wegelius): Rapid biplane angiocardiology in the tetralogy of Fallot. 109.
 — (and R. Spencer, and C. Wegelius): The diagnosis of cardiac shunts by intravenous angiocardiology. 407.

M

- Magidson, O. (and P. A. O. Wilson, and Paul Wood): Ventricular septal defect with a note on acyanotic Fallot's tetralogy. 387.
 Matthews, M. B. (and G. de Lee, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer): The effect of the Valsalva manoeuvre on the systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man. 311.
 Morrison, B. (and I. Doniach, and R. E. Steiner): Lung-changes during hexamethonium therapy for hypertension. 101.
 Mounsey, P. (and W. Brigden): The apical systolic murmur in mitral stenosis. 255.
 Müller, O. (and J. Shillingford): Tricuspid incompetence. 195.

P

- Parkinson, John: Sir James Mackenzie: the centenary of his birth. 125.
 Philip, W. M.: Rupture of the interventricular septum in myocardial infarction. 221.

R

- Reynolds, Geoffrey (and Maurice Campbell): Electrocardiographic changes during operations for pulmonary stenosis. 57.
 Ronald, J.: Pulmonary arterio-venous fistula. 54
 Roussak, N. J.: Myocardial infarction during serum sickness. 218.

S

- Samuel, R. W.: Gargoylism with cardiovascular involvement in two brothers. 417.
 Sharpey-Schafer, E. P. (and M. B. Matthews, and G. de Lee): The effect of the Valsalva manoeuvre on the systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man. 311.

- Shephard, R. J.: Pulmonary arterial pressure in acyanotic congenital heart disease. 361.
 —: The effect of carbon dioxide on the pulmonary circulation in congenital heart disease. 451.
 Shillingford, J. (and W. Brigden): The vectorcardiogram of mitral stenosis. 13.
 — (and O. Müller): Tricuspid incompetence. 195.
 — (and P. Korner): The right atrial pulse in congestive heart failure. 447.
 Short, D. S.: The syndrome of alternating bradycardia and tachycardia. 208.
 Smith, Eric (and R. Calvert): Procaine amide therapy in auricular flutter with 1:1 A-V conduction. 331.
 Smith, George: Patent ductus arteriosus with pulmonary hypertension and reversed shunt. 233.
 Sommer, L. S. (and H. Gilmore, M. Hamilton, and H. Kopelman): The ear oximeter: its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output. 301.
 Spencer, R. (and J. Lind, and C. Wegelius): The diagnosis of cardiac shunts by intravenous angiocardiology. 407.
 Steiner, R. E. (and I. Doniach, and B. Morrison): Lung-changes during hexamethonium therapy for hypertension. 101.
 Stuart, A. G. (and G. Hamilton, and Idris Jones): Ruptured interventricular septa with survival for several days. 463.
 Swann, Peter (and William Evans): Lone auricular fibrillation. 189.
 — (and Margaret Fitzpatrick): Single coronary artery. 457.
 Szekely, P. (and N. A. Wynne): The action of procaine and procaine amide on the heart. 267.

T

- Thomas, P. (and D. Dejong): The P wave in the electrocardiogram in the diagnosis of heart disease. 241.
 Trounce, J. R. (and T. R. L. Finnegan): Depression of the heart by quinidine and its treatment. 341.

V

- Van Leuven, B. D. (and L. G. Davies, and J. F. Goodwin): The nature of pulmonary hypertension in mitral stenosis. 440.
 Vogelpoel, L. (and A. Leatham): The early systolic sound in dilatation of the pulmonary artery. 21.

W

- Wegelius, C. (and J. Hilario, and J. Lind): Rapid biplane angiocardiology in the tetralogy of Fallot. 109.
 Wegelius, C. (and J. Lind, and R. Spencer): The diagnosis of cardiac shunts by intravenous angiocardiology. 407.
 Wells, A. L.: Cor pulmonale in coal worker's pneumoconiosis. 74.
 Wells, Bertrand: Assessment of mitral stenosis by phonocardiography. 261.
 Wenger, R.: Caudocranial conduction in the left auricle in nodal rhythm and in nodal ectopic beats. 87.
 Whitaker, William: Total pulmonary venous drainage through a persistent left superior vena cava. 177.
 Wilson, P. A. O. (and O. Magidson, and Paul Wood): Ventricular septal defect with a note on acyanotic Fallot's tetralogy. 387.
 Wood, Paul (and O. Magidson, and P. A. O. Wilson): Ventricular septal defect with a note on acyanotic Fallot's tetralogy. 387.
 Woodwark, G. M. (and M. W. Arthurton, and R. V. Gibson): Anomalous pulmonary vein drainage into the coronary sinus. 460.
 Wynne, N. A. (and P. Szekely): The action of procaine and procaine amide on the heart. 267.

Z

- Zondek, Theodor: Thrombosis of the innominate artery. 215.
 Zoob, Max: The oesophageal pulse in mitral valve disease. 39.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

A

- Abstracts of Cardiology. 120, 227, 331, and 474.
Action of procaine and procaine amide on the heart (P. Szekeley and N. A. Wynne). 267.
Alternating bradycardia and tachycardia, The syndrome of (D. S. Short). 208.
Angina pectoris, Ethaverine in the treatment of (D. P. Degenhardt and R. Hodgkinson). 142.
Angiocardiography in the tetralogy of Fallot, Rapid biplane (J. Hilario, J. Lind, and C. Wegelius). 109.
Angiocardiography, The diagnosis of cardiac shunts by intravenous (J. Lind, R. Spencer, and C. Wegelius). 407.
Anomalous pulmonary vein drainage into the coronary sinus (M. W. Arthurton, R. V. Gibson, and G. M. Woodwark). 460.
Aortic and mitral incompetence, The mechanical principles in the surgery of (R. C. Brock). 317.
Apical systolic murmur in mitral stenosis (P. Mounsey and W. Brigden). 255.
Arterial pressure records in normal rhythm, heart block, and auricular flutter, Atrial waves on (Sheila Howarth). 171.
Arteriosclerosis, Thrombo-embolic primary pulmonary (P. J. Barnard). 93.
Arterio-venous fistula, Pulmonary (James Ronald). 34.
Assessment of mitral stenosis by phonocardiography (Bertrand Wells). 261.
Atrial appendages: Two cases of an unusual congenital deformity, Juxtaposition of the (Allan St. J. Dixon). 153.
Atrial waves on arterial pressure records in normal rhythm, heart block, and auricular flutter (Sheila Howarth). 171.
Auricular electrokymogram in mitral stenosis, Left (P. H. Davison and R. G. Epps). 49.
Auricular fibrillation, Lone (William Evans and Peter Swann). 189.
Auricular flutter, Atrial waves on arterial pressure records in normal rhythm, heart block, and (Sheila Howarth). 171.
Auricular flutter with 1:1 A-V conduction, Procaine amide therapy in (R. Calvert and E. Smith). 331.

B

- Ballistocardiographic observations (H. D. Jacobs). 79.
Biopsies in hypertension, Renal (R. H. Heptinstall). 133.
Biplane angiocardiography in the tetralogy of Fallot, Rapid (J. Hilario, J. Lind, and C. Wegelius). 109.
Blood pressure during exercise and the effect of hexamethonium (P. B. S. Fowler and A. Guz). 1.
Bradycardia and tachycardia, The syndrome of alternating (D. S. Short). 208.
Brothers, Gargoylism with cardiovascular involvement in two (R. W. Samuel). 417.

- Carbon dioxide on the pulmonary circulation in congenital heart disease, The effect of (R. J. Shephard). 451.
Cardiac failure due to tumour of the left atrium (S. B. Hughes and S. Fazlullah). 325.
Cardiac involvement in two brothers, Gargoylism with (R. W. Samuel). 417.
Cardiac output in acute rheumatic carditis (E. M. M. Besterman). 8.
Cardiac output, The ear oximeter: Its use clinically and in the determination of (H. Gilmore, M. Hamilton, H. Kopelman, and L. S. Sommer). 301.
Cardiac shunts by intravenous angiocardiography, The diagnosis of (J. Lind, R. Spencer, and C. Wegelius). 407.
Caudocranial conduction in the left auricle in nodal rhythm and in nodal ectopic beats (R. Wenger). 87.
Closed ventricular septum, Simple pulmonary stenosis. Pulmonary valvular stenosis with a (Maurice Campbell). 273.
Coal-worker's pneumoconiosis, Cor pulmonale in (A. L. Wells). 74.
Congenital heart disease, The effect of carbon dioxide on the pulmonary circulation in (R. J. Shephard). 451.
Congenital heart disease, Pulmonary arterial pressure in acyanotic (R. J. Shephard). 361.
Congestive heart failure, The right atrial pulse in (P. Korner and J. Shillingford). 447.
Coronary artery, Single (P. Swann and M. Fitzpatrick). 457.
Coronary sinus, Anomalous pulmonary vein drainage into the (M. W. Arthurton, R. V. Gibson, and G. M. Woodwark). 460.
Cor pulmonale in Coal-worker's pneumoconiosis (A. L. Wells). 74.

D

- Determination of the venous pressure in the sitting posture (S. Gitelson). 147.
Depression of the heart by quinidine and its treatment (T. R. L. Finnegan and J. R. Trounce). 341.
Diagnosis of cardiac shunts by intravenous angiocardiography (J. Lind, R. Spencer, and C. Wegelius). 407.
Dilatation of the pulmonary artery, The early systolic sound in (A. Leatham and L. Vogelpoel). 21.

- Early systolic sound in dilatation of the pulmonary artery (A. Leatham and L. Vogelpoel). 21.
 Ear oximeter: Its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output (H. R. Gilmore, M. Hamilton, H. Kopelman, and L. S. Sommer). 301.
 Effect of carbon dioxide on the pulmonary circulation in congenital heart disease (R. J. Shephard). 451.
 Effect of the Valsalva manoeuvre on the systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man (G. de Lee, M. B. Matthews, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer). 311.
 Electrocardiogram in the diagnosis of heart disease, The P wave in the (P. Thomas and D. Dejong). 241.
 Electrocardiographic changes during operations for pulmonary stenosis (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 57.
 Electrocardiogram in mitral stenosis, Left auricular (P. H. Davison and R. G. Epps). 49.
 Ethavrine in the treatment of angina pectoris (D. P. Degenhardt and R. Hodgkinson). 142.

F

- Falot, Rapid biplane angiocardiology in the tetralogy of (J. Hilario, J. Lind, and C. Wegelius). 109.
 Falot's tetralogy, Ventricular septal defect with a note on acyanotic (Paul Wood, O. Magidson, and P. A. O. Wilson). 387.
 Fistula, Pulmonary arterio-venous (James Ronald). 34.
 Frontal coronal and sagittal plane vectorcardiography with a two-channel scale electrocardiograph (E. J. Fischmann and D. Brown). 351

G

- Gargoylism with cardiovascular involvement in two brothers (R. W. Samuel). 417.

H

- Heart block, and auricular flutter, Atrial waves on arterial pressure records in normal rhythm, (Sheila Howarth). 171.
 Heart disease, The P wave in the electrocardiogram in the diagnosis of (P. Thomas and D. Dejong). 241.
 Hexamethonium, Blood pressure during exercise and the effect of (P. B. S. Fowler and A. Guz). 1.
 Hexamethonium therapy for hypertension, Lung-changes during (I. Doniach, B. Morrison, and R. E. Steiner). 101.
 Hoskin, Jenner. 324.
 Hypertension, Lung-changes during hexamethonium therapy for (I. Doniach, B. Morrison, and R. E. Steiner). 101.
 Hypertension, Mitral stenosis and (Ian R. Gray). 165.
 Hypertension, Renal biopsies in (R. W. Heptinstall). 133.

I

- Incompetence, Tricuspid (O. Müller and J. Shillingford). 195.
 Innominate artery, Thrombosis of the (Theodor Zondek). 215.
 Interventricular septa with survival for several days, Ruptured (G. Hamilton, Idris Jones, and A. G. Stuart). 463.

J

- Juxtaposition of the atrial appendages: Two cases of an unusual congenital cardiac deformity (Allan St. J. Dixon). 153.

L

- Left auricle in nodal rhythm and in nodal ectopic beats, Caudocranial conduction in the (R. Wenger). 87.
 Left auricular electrokymogram in mitral stenosis (P. H. Davison and R. G. Epps). 49.
 Left-sided superior vena cava (Maurice Campbell and D. C. Deuchar). 423.
 Lone auricular fibrillation (William Evans and Peter Swann). 189.
 Lovibond, J. L. 465.
 Lung-changes during hexamethonium therapy for hypertension (I. Doniach, B. Morrison, and R. E. Steiner). 101.

M

- Mackenzie, The centenary of his birth: Sir James (John Parkinson). 125.
 Mechanical principles in the surgery of aortic and mitral incompetence (R. C. Brock). 317.
 Mechanism of the signs and symptoms of mitral valve disease (R. Gorlin). 375.
 Mitral incompetence, The mechanical principles in the surgery of aortic and (R. C. Brock). 317.
 Mitral stenosis, The apical systolic murmur in (P. Mounsey and W. Brigden). 255.
 Mitral stenosis and hypertension (Ian R. Gray). 165.
 Mitral stenosis, Left auricular electrokymogram in (P. H. Davison and R. G. Epps). 49.

- Mitral stenosis, The nature of pulmonary hypertension in (L. G. Davies, J. F. Goodwin, and B. D. Van Leuven). 440.
 Mitral stenosis by phonocardiography, The assessment of (Bertrand Wells). 261.
 Mitral stenosis, The vectorcardiogram of (W. Brigden and J. Shillingford). 8.
 Mitral valve disease, The mechanism of the signs and symptoms of (R. Gorlin). 375.
 Mitral valve disease, The œsophageal pulse in (Max Zoob). 39.
 Myocardial infarction during serum sickness (N. J. Roussak). 218.
 Myocardial infarction, Rupture of the interventricular septum in (W. M. Philip). 221.

N

- Nature of pulmonary hypertension in mitral stenosis (L. G. Davies, J. F. Goodwin, and B. D. Van Leuven). 440.
 Nodal ectopic beats, Caudocranial conduction in the left auricle in nodal rhythm and in (R. Wenger). 87.
 Nodal rhythm and in nodal ectopic beats, Caudocranial conduction in the left auricle in (R. Wenger). 87.
 Normal rhythm, heart block, and auricular flutter, Atrial waves on arterial pressure records in (Sheila Howarth). 171.

O

- Observations, Ballistocardiographic (H. D. Jacobs). 79.
 Œsophageal pulse in mitral valve disease (Max Zoob). 39.
 Operations for pulmonary stenosis, Electrocardiographic changes during (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 57.
 Oximeter: Its use clinically and in the determination of cardiac output, The Ear (H. Gilmore, M. Hamilton, H. Kopelman, and L. S. Sommer). 301.

P

- Patent ductus arteriosus with pulmonary hypertension and reversed shunt (George Smith). 233.
 Phonocardiography, The assessment of mitral stenosis by (Bertrand Wells). 261.
 Pneumoconiosis, Cor pulmonale in coal-worker's (A. L. Wells). 74.
 Primary pulmonary arteriosclerosis, Thrombo-embolic (P. J. Barnard). 93.
 Procaine amide therapy in auricular flutter with 1:1 A-V conduction (R. Calvert and E. Smith). 331.
 Procaine and procaine amide on the heart, The action of (P. Szekely and N. A. Wynne). 267.
 Proceedings of the British Cardiac Society. 120 and 468.
 Pulmonary arterial pressure in acyanotic congenital heart disease (R. J. Shephard). 361.
 Pulmonary arterial pressure in man, The effect of the Valsalva manœuvre on the systemic and (G. de Lee, M. B. Matthews, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer). 311.
 Pulmonary arteriosclerosis, Thrombo-embolic primary (P. J. Barnard). 93.
 Pulmonary arterio-venous fistula (James Ronald). 34.
 Pulmonary hypertension and reversed shunt, Patent ductus arteriosus with (George Smith). 233.
 Pulmonary hypertension in mitral stenosis, The nature of (L. G. Davies, J. F. Goodwin, and B. D. Van Leuven). 440.
 Pulmonary stenosis, Electrocardiographic changes during operations for (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 57.
 Pulmonary stenosis, Simple (D. W. Barritt). 381.
 Pulmonary valvular stenosis with a closed ventricular septum, Simple pulmonary stenosis. (Maurice Campbell). 273.
 Pulmonary vein drainage into the coronary sinus (M. W. Arthurton, R. V. Gibson, and G. M. Woodwark). 460.
 Pulmonary venous drainage through a persistent left superior vena cava, Total (William Whitaker). 177.
 Pulse in congestive heart failure, The right atrial (P. Korner and J. Shillingford). 447.
 P. wave in the electrocardiogram in the diagnosis of heart disease (P. Thomas and D. Dejong). 241.

Q

- Quinidine and its treatment, Depression of the heart by (T. R. L. Finnegan and J. R. Trounce). 341.

R

- Rapid biplane angiocardiology in the tetralogy of Fallot (J. Hilario, J. Lind, and C. Wegelius). 109.
 Renal biopsies in hypertension (R. H. Heptinstall). 133.
 Reversed shunt, Patent ductus arteriosus with pulmonary hypertension and (George Smith). 233.
 Rheumatic carditis, Cardiac output in acute (E. M. M. Besterman). 8.
 Right atrial pulse in congestive failure (P. Korner and J. Shillingford). 447.
 Rupture of the interventricular septum in myocardial infarction (W. M. Philip). 221.
 Ruptured interventricular septa with survival for several days (G. Hamilton, Idris Jones, and A. G. Stuart). 463.

S

- Serum sickness, Myocardial infarction during (N. J. Roussak). 218.
Simple pulmonary stenosis (D. W. Barritt). 381.
Simple pulmonary stenosis, Pulmonary valvular stenosis with a closed ventricular septum (Maurice Campbell). 273.
Single coronary artery (P. Swann and M. Fitzpatrick). 457.
Sitting posture, Determination of the venous pressure in the (S. Gitelson). 147.
Superior vena cava, Total pulmonary venous drainage through a persistent left (William Whitaker). 177.
Surgery of aortic and mitral incompetence, The mechanical principles in the (R. C. Brock). 317.
Syndrome of alternating bradycardia and tachycardia (D. S. Short). 208.
Systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man, The effects of, the Valsalva manœuvre on the (G. de Lee, M. B. Matthews, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer). 311.
Systolic sound in dilatation of the pulmonary artery, The early (A. Leatham and L. Vogelpoel). 21.

T

- Tachycardia, The syndrome of alternating bradycardia and (D. S. Short). 208.
Thrombo-embolic primary pulmonary arteriosclerosis (P. J. Barnard). 93.
Thrombosis of the innominate artery (Theodor Zondek). 215.
Total pulmonary venous drainage through a persistent left superior vena cava (William Whitaker). 177.
Tricuspid incompetence (O. Müller and J. Shillingford). 195.
Tumour of the left atrium, Cardiac failure due to (S. B. Hughes and S. Fazlullah). 325.

U

- Unusual site, Ventricular septal defect at an (N. R. Konar and A. N. Sen Gupta). 227.

V

- Valsalva manœuvre on the systemic and pulmonary arterial pressure in man, The effect of the (G. de Lee, M. B. Matthews, and E. P. Sharpey-Schafer). 311.
Vectorcardiogram of mitral stenosis (W. Brigden and J. Shillingford). 13.
Vectorcardiography with a two-channel scalar electrocardiograph, Frontal and sagittal plane (E. J. Fischmann and D. Brown). 351.
Vena cava, The left-sided superior (Maurice Campbell and D. C. Deuchar). 423.
Venous pressure in the sitting posture, Determination of the (S. Gitelson). 147.
Ventricular septal defect at an unusual site (N. R. Konar and A. N. Sen Gupta). 224.
Ventricular septal defect with a note on acyanotic Fallot's tetralogy (Paul Wood, O. Magidson, and P. A. O. Wilson). 387.
